Answer key

Every answer carries the reason behind it. Read the reason for the questions you got right as well — that is where you find out whether you were right for the right reason.

A. Multiple choice

1. B) a few — Friends is countable, so the small positive quantity is a few.
2. B) a little — Sugar is uncountable, so a little is used.
3. A) too — Too plus an adjective means more than is wanted.
4. B) enough — Enough comes after an adjective.
5. B) enough — Enough comes before a noun.
6. B) too many — People is countable, so the excess is expressed by too many.
7. B) too much — Coffee is uncountable, so the excess is too much.
8. B) She has little money. — Without the article, little is negative and means almost none.
9. B) too / to — Too + adjective + to + verb expresses impossibility.
10. B) Few — Few without the article is negative and works with countable nouns.

B. Fill in the blank

1. a few — People is countable, and the meaning is a small positive number.
